Avenging the Great Prophet ﷺ

As the sword of honor is placed in its sheath, the lowliest people among mankind dare to use their tongues against the master of the sons of Adam and the best of creation ﷺ, though it cannot harm him at all, for Allah is sufficient for him against those who assault his honorable position. They incur the curse of Allah to the extent that they will not enjoy a respite from that curse even in their graves, as Allah ﷻ says: "Indeed, those who abuse Allah and His Messenger - Allah has cursed them in this world and the Hereafter, and prepared for them a humiliating punishment" (Ahzab: 57). So the torment will surely overtake them, and there is no escape from it, and they will also see the torment in this world before the Akhirah.

Allah has commanded us to punish those who hurt His Prophet ﷺ, as Allah ﷻ says: "Would you not fight a people who broke their oaths and determined to expel the Messenger, and they had begun [the attack upon] you the first time? Do you fear them? But Allah has more right that you should fear Him, if you are [truly] believers" (At-Tawbah: 13). Therefore, because they hurt the Prophet ﷺ by plotting to expel Him, Allah ﷻ has made it obligatory to fight them and kill them. Similarly, whoever assaults the honorable position of the Prophet ﷺ, deserves severe punishment. Allah ﷻ has shown us how to respond to those who speak ill of the religion of Allah and His Prophet ﷺ.

Allah ﷻ wants us to choose the most painful way to respond to those kuffar, as He ﷻ says: "Fight them; Allah will punish them by your hands and will disgrace them and give you victory over them and satisfy the breasts of a believing people" (At-Tawbah: 14). The best solution to this problem is to fight [for the sake of Allah] because it frightens and humiliates the kuffar and makes the Muslims honored and victorious. Allah ﷻ is the Most Honorable One, and He ﷻ has ordained honor for Himself, for His Prophet ﷺ, and the believers. There is no honor for Muslims today without waging jihad and fighting for the sake of Allah, when the Muslims abandon the honorable path of jihad, and they engage in "peaceful demonstrations", "electronic condemnations," and other means through which neither the rights of the rightful owners will be realized, nor the oppressors can be prevented, nor injustice ended. The only reason for all these is that the Muslim Ummah is suffering from"Wahan,' as they have preferred the love of this world to death for the sake of Allah. They have fallen in love with humiliation, preferring shame over the life of honor and the prestigious death, as if they have been engaged in such humiliation for good. An Ummah that does not take up arms, fight in the way of religion and avenge its Prophet ﷺ, leader, forerunner, and its prestige, is not authentic in its claim of love for the Prophet ﷺ. Many people will be expelled from the pool of the Prophet ﷺ on the Day of Resurrection when he ﷺ will say to them: "Away, away with those who changed [the religion] after I was gone." [Bukhari] This is not because they changed themselves, but because they changed the method of the Prophet ﷺ.

The reason why the slaves of the cross yesterday and the slaves of the cow today dared to assault the honor of the Prophet ﷺ is that they thought that their blasphemous remarks would only be passed on in condemnation and empty rejection, and soon those empty words of condemnation will be forgotten, and the same blasphemous actions will be repeated over and over again. Those who condemned used all means for supporting the Prophet ﷺ except jihad and fighting [in the path of Allah], the order Allah gave to them. But availing of those fruitless means was not enough for them. Additionally, they accused the mujahidin of betrayal and ridiculed them before anyone else, when they attacked the taghut governments or their personnel who were involved in the blasphemous remarks against the Prophet ﷺ. If you want to be surprised, then listen to this amazing story! The blessed attacks carried out by the proud children of the Ummah are considered by some people as "plots by intelligence agencies," and they think that such attacks would worsen their so-called peaceful campaign which they chose for the justification of their abandonment of jihad! This is the old disease of staying behind from jihad for the sake of Allah, the issue of laziness, and the ilnness of weakness and incapacity that the Prophet ﷺ diagnosed fourteen hundred years ago.

If we look at the Seerat of the Prophet ﷺ and his Sahabah, we will find that they avenged the Prophet ﷺ by killing, slaughtering, and scattering crowds, not by empty words and deeds. Their stories are found in the authentic books of Hadith and Seerah. Remember the incident of Muhammad ibn Maslamah and his companions - may Allah be pleased with them - who attacked Ka'b ibn Ashraf, given that there was no dispute about it that their swords turned into a matter of glory for the Muslims. Abdullah ibn 'Atiq - may Allah be pleased with him - lied in wait for the assassination of Abu Rafi'. He killed him in the middle of his house when he put the sword in his stomach until he heard the crackling of his bones! Both Mu'adh and Ma'wadh, the sons of Afrah, asked Abdur Rahman bin Auf - may Allah be pleased with them - on the day of Badr about Abu Jahl: "I have heard that he (Abu Jahl) talked ill about the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. I swear by the One in Whose hand is my soul that I will not take my eyes off him until one of us dies." They beat him with swords until they killed him.

Abu Dawud included this narration of Ibn Abbas - may Allah be pleased with him - in the chapter "Ruling on He who abuses the Prophet ﷺ" if his Sunan: "A blind man had a freed concubine (Umm Walad) who used to insult the Prophet ﷺ and say bad things about him. He told her not to do that but she did not stop, and he rebuked her but she did not give heed to him. One night, when she started to say bad things about the Prophet ﷺ and insulted Him, he took a short sword or dagger, put it on her belly and pressed it, and killed her. Thereupon the Prophet ﷺ said: 'Bear witness, there is no blood-money due for her.'"

This is how the Sahabah of the Prophet ﷺ avenged Him. They were nearer to the Prophet ﷺ, and they were well aware of His Sunnah, methods, and guidelines. Today, the Islamic State's mujahidin have built a bridge over them and attacked the Hindu pagans in their temple and killed them along with their murtadd bodyguards whom America and Qatar turned into guardians and protectors of idols instead of the seekers of Shari'ah!

It is obligatory on Muslims - everywhere - to avenge our Prophet ﷺ in the way befitting His honorable position, as Muhammad ibn Maslamah, Abdullah ibn 'Atiq avenged Him. The path of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and His Sahabah should be sought for avenging Him, not the path of weakness or abandonment of jihad, and empty slogans! Whoever is unable to do so, should - at least - hold back their tongue from taking stances against those who possess the courage to sacrifice themselves for the honor of the Prophet ﷺ. A poet says: "I wish those, who do not submit themselves to the truth, paved the way for those who submit themselves to the truth."

It is noteworthy that what the Rafidi pagans and their groups uttered regarding the Messenger of Allah ﷺ and His honorable Sahabah is even harsher than that of the Hindu pagans recently, but we have not heard of anyone speaking out against them in so-called peaceful demonstrations! On the contrary, people criticize the mujahidin and call the killing of Rafidi pagans by the mujahidin "terrorism," "extremism," and "foreignness"! So how can these people avenge the Messenger of Allah ﷺ when they do not know their friend from their foe?!

In short, every Muslim should try to take one step forward on the path of supporting the honor of the Prophet ﷺ. Undoubtedly, the first of these steps is to disassociate from the kuffar and be hostile to them, and to make a sincere attempt to wage jihad against the kuffar and kill them is the only Qur'anic solution to get rid of the current situation of the Ummah. No matter what way the researchers find and what method the methodologists discover, they can not find a method more useful and painful for the enemy [of Islam] other than jihad for the sake of Allah, for it is the source of strength, honor, and supremacy of the Muslims who led the world with this jihad yesterday, and even today, it is not possible to do so without it. And Allah is predominant over His affair, but most of the people know not.

in Inghmasi Attack on Sikh Temple in Kabul

Brother Abu Muhammad at-Tajiki who carried out an attack on a place of worship for the Sikh polytheists in Kabul

Khurasan Wilayah

النبأ

This week, in retaliation for the assault on the honorable position of the Prophet (ﷺ), a Tajik mujahid, from the Khilafah soldiers, carried out an inghmasi attack on a Sikh polytheists' shrine in the Kabul city, killing and wounding at least 50 members in the ranks of the Sikh polytheists and Taliban murtaddin who gave them protection, and inflicting heavy material damage on the shrine. As a result of the other attacks in the Khurasan region, about 15 other Taliban militiamen, including two commanders, were killed and wounded, and a murtadd Pakistani policeman was also killed, and all praise is due to Allah.

Attacks in Kunar and Laghman: 1 Killed and 4 Injured, Including Taliban Commander

In details of the attack, with the success from Allah, the Khilafah soldiers attacked the headquarters of the murtadd Taliban militia in the Tsowki area of Kunar province on Wednesday (15th Dhu al-Qa'dah), using machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades, while one member was killed and three others were wounded, and the mujahidin returned safely to their bases, and on the next day, the mujahidin detonated an explosive device on a Taliban militia commander in the Alingar area of Laghman, wounding him seriously, and all praise is due to Allah.

More Casualties in Ranks of Taliban as Vehicle Disabled in Explosion

In related circumstances, the Khilafah soldiers ambushed a Taliban militia vehicle in the Nurgul area of Kunar on Saturday (18th Dhu al-Qa'dah), targeting it with machine guns and rocket-propelled grenades, when the vehicle was disabled and five people were killed and wounded, before the mujahidin returned safely to their bases, and all praise is due to Allah.

Exclusive

A special source told An-Naba that the attack took place after militants had attacked houses of the Muslims in the area, burning them down their houses and looting their property.

Attack on Polytheistic Place of Worship in Kabul for Avenging Prophet (ﷺ)

Early in the morning of the same day, a temple for the Sikh polytheists in Kabul fell victim of an attack by the mujahidin of the Khilafah, when a commando of the Khilafah, Abu Muhammad at-Tajiki, attacked the temple, after eliminating the security guards who were members of the murtadd Taliban militia.

Exclusive

A security source told An-Naba that after entering the place of worship, the inghmasi brother closed the door behind him and targeted the polytheists with machine gun and hand grenades which were in his ammunition pouch.

Meanwhile, the explosive unit for the Khilafah soldiers detonated an explosive laden vehicle and 4 explosive devices, 2 of which near the entrance of the temple and 2 others at a distance from it, on the support patrols, for Taliban militiamen, who were successively attempting to intervene in the area in defense of the Sikh polytheists. The confrontation with the Taliban militiamen continued for 3 hours when the inghmasi brother Abu Muhammad was fighting with them alone.

At least 50 Murtaddin and Sikh Pagans Killed or Wounded

As a result of the attack, about 30 Sikh pagans were killed and wounded inside the temple, while the casualties in the ranks of the guardians of the pagans, Taliban militia, rose to 20, as a result of the armed resistance offered by the inghmashi brother and successive explosions on the incoming patrols for the Taliban Militia. The mujahidin confirmed that they carried out the attack on the Hindu polytheists in response of their blasphemous remarks against the great leader Muhammad (ﷺ), following the Sunnah of the Prophet's companions, may Allah be pleased with them, whose Seerat contains ample examples of retaliatory actions against those who hurt the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and the companions, may Allah be pleased with them- eliminated them all in whatever ways they could afford.

Taliban Militia Sacrifices its Members for "Sikh Polytheists"

The Taliban militiamen, who failed to protect the places of worship of the Rafidah pagans yesterday and that of the Sikh pagans today, quickly cordoned the area completely and prevented "media teams" from entering the area, and they did that with a view to concealing the losses, with which the Taliban always try to conceal their failure in their "fight against the so called terrorism" after each attack, but the photos, featuring the destruction of the temple, were enough for the media coverage.

The Taliban's official report was not limited to lying about the extent of the casualties; rather the report claimed that more than one attacker was killed in the hands of the murtadd militiamen! But official sources for the mujahidin confirmed that the attack was carried out by an inghmasi brother who was fighting to defend and avenge the honor of the Prophet (ﷺ), while a spokesman for the Taliban's "Kabul Police" said to a Crusaders' Radio: "Our men have sacrificed their lives for the sake of the Sikh community!" The Taliban and the Hindu government quickly "condemned" the attack, calling it a "cowardly" attack, as the Indian tyrant Modi released a statement, also reflected by that of the Taliban murtaddin, strongly condemning the attack of the enemies of the homeland (mujahidin) on the Hindu temple in Kabul and offering condolences to the families of the victims (Sikh pagans)! The same statement was repeated by the murtadd Taliban militia.

Idolaters fled Afghanistan after Khilafah Soldiers' Attacks

After the attack, the Sikh polytheists called on the Indian authorities to intervene in their crisis immediately for bringing them from Afghanistan

A vehicle for the murtadd Taliban commander destroyed in Ghani Khel area of Nangarhar to India, as they told the media: "We have repeatedly asked the government of India to grant us visas. We don't want to live here anymore," while the Indian authorities announced that they have issued "100 emergency visas" and are also reviewing "40 other applications" for the purpose of withdrawing their brethren from Khurasan.

The mujahidin of the Khilafah have been carrying out deadly attacks on the places of worship of the polytheistic Hindus and Sikhs, while a few years ago the inghmasi brother Abu Khalid al-Hindi, may Allah accept him, killed dozens of the Sikh pagans in a deadly attack on one of their places of worship in Kabul.

In Nangarhar, 5 People, including a commander, Killed, Vehicle Destroyed

And in other attacks, the Khilafah soldiers detonated an explosive device on a vehicle of a murtadd Taliban commander in the Ghani Khel area of Nangarhar province on Monday (20th Dhu al-Qa'dah), destroying the vehicle and killing and wounding the 5 members, including the commander, and all praise is due to Allah.

Exclusive A special source told An-Naba that after the blast, the militants fired indiscriminately at the civilians in the area, seriously injuring a number of them. The same source revealed that the target of the blast was identified as murtadd "Shah Mahmud" who was a Taliban commander involved in the arresting, killing, and torturing of Muslims in that area.

Assassination of Member of the Pakistani Police

On the other hand, the Khilafah soldiers targeted a member of the murtadd Pakistani police in Peshawar area on the same day, using pistol shot and killing him, and all praise is due to Allah.

Last week

During the past week, the Khilafah soldiers in Khurasan killed and wounded at least 30 of the Taliban militiamen and other murtadd personnel cooperating with them, including operational crews working in airports and military prisons, and destroyed and damaged four of their vehicles, as well as injuring two members of the Pakistani police in six separate operations distributed over the areas Kabul, Kunar, Mazar Sharif, Laghman, and Bajaur border area.
